THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAYAPPELLATE SIDE*NOTIFICATION

No. DES/COMP/254/2014.—In exercise to the powers vested with, the Honourable the Chief Justice of the High Court of Bombay, is hereby pleased to make the following amendment in the Bombay High Court Revised Guidelines for Appointment on Compassionate Ground, 2007 :—

1. Add the following Guideline No. 4(e) after the existing Guideline No. 4(d) in the Bombay High Court Revised Guidelines for Appointment on Compassionate Ground, 2007 :—

(e) If the married daughter is the only offspring in the family of deceased Judicial employee or his/her family is dependent only on the married daughter in such cases the married daughter of the deceased Judicial employee shall be eligible for appointment on compassionate ground.

(2) While giving the appointment on compassionate ground, it shall be incumbent upon said candidate (in the case of married daughter she herself and her husband also) to submit an affidavit stating that he/she (candidate) shall look after the family members of the deceased judicial employee. However, after giving an appointment on compassionate ground, if he/she (candidate) found not to be looking after the family member, his/her Government service should be terminated immediately. In this regard henceforth the necessary undertaking be obtained from the candidate on the stamp paper before the appointment.

After getting the appointment by the unmarried daughter on compassionate ground, if she gets married, then an undertaking to that effect should be obtained even from her husband, within six months from the date of marriage.

Bombay,
dated 28th April, 2014.

SHALINI S. PHANSALKAR-JOSHI,
Registrar General.
